A View from the Lake: Beaver Dam Lake Management District Update by Tom Schreoder, President

Even though “summer” is more than half over, activities impacting the Lake continue to evolve. The July 14, 2018 Annual Beaver Dam Lake Management District was attended by 35 district residents, which included State Senator Janet Bewley and State Representative Romaine Quinn. Commissioner John Eppler chose not to run for another term and was recognized for his service which included working on the DASH and the Healthy Lakes Fish Stick project. John Bavier was elected and I was re-elected to three year terms as commissioners. The officers for 2018-19 will be Tom Schreoder- President, Dr. Alan Carlson – Treasurer, and John Bavier- Secretary. The budget was approved and includes funding for EWM and CLP weed, matching funds for the Jeffery Blvd. and 3rd Ave. storm water improvements, the match for the Hwy. 63 Bridge study with the WDOT and other expenses.

The SW Storm water pond is completed and is functioning as planned. The trees and shrubs that were planted survived the winter although some deer damage was noted. Additional grass was seeded in spring and has been left to go to seed in an effort to fill in the bare spots left by the annual grass that was planted last fall. Once the seed is well established the City will be mowing and trimming the area. This fall some dead trees along 5th Ave. and elsewhere on the

Cumberland Fire Department improves ISO rating

by Fire Chief Barry Kuenkel

The Cumberland Fire Department was recently notified that it has improved its Insurance Service Offices (ISO) rating to a Class 4 for the City of Cumberland. Achieving a class 4 or higher rating is accomplished by only 25% of all fire departments in the nation. For a volunteer department to get to this level is an accomplishment we can all be very proud of.

Community Risk Reduction Programs were the leading factors in the rating score. Those programs include, Fire prevention programs in schools, fire inspections, fire investigation training, smoke alarm programs and other community outreach efforts. I am very proud of our Community Risk Reduction Team for the way they have stepped up to a very progressive approach.

Another large factor leading to the improvement is the equipment we have to work with. This is due, in no small part, to everyone in the community who supports our fund raising efforts, enabling us to have the quantity and quality of equipment that we have.

Our training efforts also contributed some to the higher rating, but there is room for improvement there.

The departments rating for outside the city, while good is not as high, simply because of the difference in water supply and the extra time involved arriving on scene.

Insurers will be receiving copies of the report and the results become effective November 1, 2018.

Could have been much worse!

Cumberland Police, Ambulance, and the Barron County Sheriff's Department responded to a motorcycle crash on Thursday, August 2nd on 10th St. and 21 1/2 Ave. A motorcycle had left the roadway after failing to negotiate a sharp turn in the roadway. Devin Long, 26, a Cumberland resident, was transported from the scene with non-life threatening injuries. Speed and alcohol are alleged to have contributed to the crash.

Call to police leads to methamphetamine bust

Danielle M. Ellingboe, 40, of Isanti, MN. has been charged with possession with intent to deliver methamphetamine, as a party to a crime, and three counts of possession of drug paraphernalia.

Matthew J. Ellingboe, 35, of Isanti, MN., has been charged with possession with intent to deliver methamphetamine, as a party to a crime, and three counts of possession of drug paraphernalia.

The criminal complaint states that on August 1, 2018, at approximately 4:50 p.m. Cumberland Police Officer Chafer was dispatched to a restaurant in Cumberland in response to a complaint that an individual in a red truck, with Minnesota plates, in the parking lot, appeared to be passing out in the vehicle.

Upon his arrival Officer Chafer observed the truck. As he walked up to the vehicle to check on the occupants, he noticed the passenger appeared to be very fidgety and was moving around. He made contact with the driver of the vehicle and identified him as Matthew Ellingboe and the female passenger as Danielle Ellingboe. Both individuals appeared to be under the influence of some type of substance even though Officer Chafer could not smell the odor of any type of alcohol coming from the vehicle. They both appeared to be disheveled and their eyes appeared to be bloodshot. It also appeared to him that they had been living out of the vehicle.

Officer Chafer advised them as to the reason why he was there and asked if they were physically okay. Matthew advised they had been at the casino and came to Cumberland to get some rings that they had pawned.

Based upon Officer Chafer's observations of both occupants, he requested Turtle Lake Police Officer Schal-lock and his K-9 unit to respond to his location.

Due to his observations of Matthew, Officer Chafer asked him to step out of the vehicle and advised him that due to the call Officer Chafer had received, he could not allow them to simply drive away. He asked Ellingboe if he had been drinking and he indicated that he had been at the casino since 4:00 in the morning and won approximately $7,500 but only had about $3,700 left. Officer Chafer advised him that he had requested a K-9 to come to the location and requested Danielle to step out of the vehicle. When she did so, Officer Chafer saw that she grabbed a black colored duffel bag and was going to bring it toward where he was with Matthew. Officer Chafer advised her that he would have to go through the bag if she brought it there, she put the bag back inside the vehicle.

Officer Schallock arrived on scene and subsequently advised Officer Chafer that his K-9 did indicate on the vehicle, particularly on the passenger side of the vehicle. Officer Chafer searched the vehicle, including the black duffel bag. Inside the duffel bag he found what appeared to be a first-aid bag that contained several small plastic bags, known as gem bags, that contained a white crystal like substance, that based, on his training and experience, he suspected to be methamphetamine. He also located two glass pipes that appeared to have been used to smoke methamphetamine due to the white burnt color on the inside of the pipes.

He also found a scale inside the bag, as well as a second larger scale, and an Altoids container that he opened up and found several small gem bags that contained a white glass like material, which he believed to be methamphetamine. There was also mail inside the bag that had Ms. Ellingboe's name on it.

Officer Chafer advised both subjects that they were being placed under arrest for possession of meth with intent to deliver and at that point Matthew advised Danielle to not say anything and asked for a lawyer.

Officer Chafer's report indicated there were six small gem bags found inside the first aid zipper bag. Five additional bags were found inside the Altoid container. The total weight of the substance

Westin, Peichel and friends up next on the lake

Jeremy Westin and Ben Peichel are known as musicians around town. When they played last summer in the Island City Music series, we learned they're also comedians. Their lively music and good-humored banter will be on the Library Lake stage Tuesday, Aug. 14, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Westin, an Ardisam IT guy, and Peichel, owner of Ben's Busing, will share the stage with a handful of other performers, including Beth McClain, a Cumberland Federal employee with a golden voice. The sponsor of Westin & Peichel is Enrichment Through Culture (ETC), the arts council that is the overall sponsor of the Tuesday concert series.

Westin is also a member of the ETC board.

Vickie Komarek, owner of Peter & Annie's World Market, will be serving the food on Aug. 14.

Kayaks will be at the lake, compliments of the Cumberland School District. Sue Bridger, community education director, asks that you either call her (715-822-5121, ext. 403) or email sbrid@csdmail.com to reserve a boat.

Bring a lawn chair or blanket to sit on. Questions? Call Larry Werner at 612-743-5117.

Classic Cars at Pioneer Village Museum

The Pioneer Village Museum and the Past Reflections Car Club will join forces once again on Saturday, August 11th, to celebrate classic cars. The vehicles represent a variety of time periods in automobile history. The "Village" is a great setting for these vehicles lovingly restored by antique car enthusiasts.

Cars will be pulling in by 8:00 am and will be on display until 3:00 pm. The museum will be open until 5:00 pm.

Car show attendees are encouraged to visit the museum's own display of antique and unique vehicles housed in the machinery building at the north end of the museum grounds. These include, a Doodlebug (a Model A that was turned into a tractor by an Almena blacksmith), a 1926 Pontiac (the first year of Pontiac production), and a 1958 Edsel, just to name a few.

Visiting the classic car show provides another opportunity for people to explore the many exhibits at the Museum, from farming to kitchen equipment, and military uniforms to antique dolls and toys. The Pioneer Kitchen will be open, along with the Museum Gift Shop, which has a treasure trove of museum souvenirs, old fashioned toys, and locally made craft items for sale.

The Pioneer Village Museum is 1 1/2 miles west of Cameron on Hwy W. Admission is $10 for adults, $5 for children 12 and under, and free for 5 and under. Call 715-458-2080 or go online at pioneer\_village\_museum.org.

Village of Haugen to Celebrate 100 Years

A celebration of the Village of Haugen's 100th anniversary as an incorporated municipality is happening Saturday and Sunday, August 11 and 12th, during Haugen Fun Days. Although the actual incorporation date was April 1, 1918, the celebration has been postponed to coincide with the village's annual summer festival.

In commemoration of the anniversary, a book detailing highlights of the village's history with many historic pictures will be on sale at the Haugen Area Historical Museum, starting at 10:00 a.m. the Saturday of Fun Days weekend. In addition, special commemorative coins will also be on sale. Artwork on the coins depicts the importance of logging, farming, and railroad and Bear Lake to the life of the community.

A formal centennial proclamation will take place just in advance of the Grand Parade at noon on Sunday at the grand stand on Haugen's "main drag," Third Street (CTY VV) in front of the Dairy State Bank.

property will be cleaned up and several additional trees and shrubs will be added.

One last attempt to create a navigable channel from the Grove Street Bridge to the dredged channel along the parking area adjacent to Library Lake will determine whether more costly dredging will be needed. Hopefully the use of low cost equipment, like that used in the shallow waters during the Vietnam War will do the job. There may be a need for volunteers to help remove loosened cattail and other vegetation from the channel. A public notice will be posted should the need for volunteers arise.

The 2018 treatment for EWM was quite successful yet early July plant survey results indicate that EWM still exists. The July data and that gathered in Oct. will be the basis for developing the 2019 Treatment plan. With the approval of the herbicide ProcellaCor by the Fed. EPA and the State of WI. , the Lake District is working with the WDNR, SEPRO - the Manufacturer of ProcellaCor, and others on approving a test site on Beaver Dam Lake. This product can be used in spot applications and is applied in parts/billion rather than parts/million as is the case with other approved aquatic plant herbicides. More to come on this subject as the test program develops.

One baffling observation again this year is the prolific growth of fern grass in Norwegian and City Bay's. Normally fern grass grows to only a foot or two from the bottom. However, the past two years the grass has canopied on the surface causing navigation issues. By now the fern grass should be through its growth cycle and laying down beneath the surface. This issue will be addressed at the Jan. 2019 planning meeting for next year's EWM/CLP treatment

I encourage those that use the lake to read the latest edition of the Wisconsin Boating Regulations. I continue to observe safety violations that should you be stopped by lake law enforcement officers, may cause you to be ticketed. Most fines range from $90.00 to as much as several hundred dollars. Many of the safety violations I continue to see involve not having Personal Floatation Device –PFD on paddleboards and Personal Water Craft. Another violation is PWC being operated too close to other PWC, boats and pontoons. So far this summer I have fortunately not observed people riding outside any railing in the front of pontoon boats while under power. This is not only very dangerous but carries a hefty $170.00 plus fine.

The navigation buoys at the narrows, the sand bar (sometimes referred to as “the dam”) between Williams and Rabbit Bay and the four “no wake” buoys across the lake near the beach are there for safety reasons. Four times this summer a buoy has broken free from its mooring location. I know for a fact that twice the north buoy at the Dam came free after I watched three young boys playing and hanging on it. This just happened again as I am writing this article.

The north “dam” buoy is currently floating past the house and will need to be retrieved. Please stay away from the buoys. There is a hefty fine should you be caught playing on or moving the buoys on purpose.

Last, please continue to follow clean boat precautions when traveling between different lakes. The constant threat of invasive species being transported to our Lake is never ending. With Zebra mussels in many Minnesota Lakes as well as the nearby Lake McKenzie chain, the threat to our Lake is as close as the next boat launched onto our Lake. The three Boat Monitors this summer are at the boat launches to inspect boats and to inform owners of the need to make sure they are clean of invasive species both before they launch the boat or PWC and when they trailer it again. Please continue the pleasant dialog with the monitors that I understand has been the norm this year.

Have a great time the rest of this summer and enjoy the week of the Rutabaga Festival.

Northwoods Notebook: Acting is something even old men can do

by Larry Werner

You might have noticed the ETC ad that appears most weeks on page 2 of the Advocate has been announcing auditions for the fall play at the Cumberland Arts Center. On Aug. 8, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., and again from 10 a.m. to noon on Aug. 11, Dan Hoffmann and Ann Kysely, the co-directors of the play, will be in the arts center basement where potential cast members can read lines from “Packer Fans from Outer Space.”

Chances are, they'll be sitting there by themselves during those audition times. At an Enrichment Through Culture board meeting recently, Hoffmann said that's what usually happens: Few or no auditions. Then, the directors will try to coax people they know to take parts in this latest comedy from the folks who wrote “Guys and Does,” last fall's ETC hit.

I've been in two plays since I moved here four years ago. And it was arm-twisting rather than auditioning that got me on stage. My acting debut, as Jesus Constazuela in “The Odd Couple (Female Version),” was the result of Lori Bock, ETC's president, appealing to my Catholic guilt (“Larry, we won't have a ‘Baga Fest play if we don't find two guys.”). And my second play, in which I played an escaped mental patient, happened because Eva Srubar, director of the first one, was directing “Death by Design” and just had to have me in the cast.

That's pretty much how it happens in the plays with adult casts: guilt-tripping, arm-twisting, flattery and sometimes outright begging. It's too bad we struggle to fill roles, especially male roles, for plays at the arts center because acting in a community-theater production is flat-out fun. And that's coming from a guy who did his first play at the ripe old age of 68. That's right: This old German guy played a dashing Spanish divorcee at an age when your most romantic activity is lunch at Culver's the day Social Security checks arrive.

I can't tell you how many times people have told me there's no way they could memorize the number of lines Jesus spoke in Odd Couple. Yes, you can. If I can, you can. There are days I can't recall the name of my favorite movie or the name of the guy who sang that classic love song from 1961, “Hats off to Larry.” But I memorized pages of lines in a dozen performances of two plays with hardly a slip.

You learn the lines because you speak them over and over in 35 or 40 rehearsals that people like Eva, Dan and Ann put you through. And there are tricks, such as recording the entire script on your cell phone and playing it through the bluetooth audio in your car every time you drive anywhere.

Is it sounding like fun yet? Maybe not. It is a lot of work to be in a play. And before every performance, I experienced moments of panic that I'd forget a line out there in front of my friends and neighbors.

But despite the many rehearsals, the long hours spent memorizing and the fear of forgetting, I would do it again. I've made many good friends by acting in plays. Denny Epple and I probably wouldn't have become such good buddies if he hadn't played my brother, Manolo Contstazuela, in Odd Couple.

But perhaps the most gratifying aspect of acting in community theater is the joy you bring to those who pay to see you perform. If laughter is, as they say, the best medicine, you get to make people feel better by giving them a good laugh. And you'll be thanked by the patrons as they leave the theater and are greeted by the cast in a reception line out front.

But sometimes you hear things in that reception line that make you wonder whether you should have taken the part. After my role as Eric, the escaped mental patient in “Death by Design,” one woman shook my hand and said, “You were a natural.”

I guess that was a compliment.

NOTICE
CITY OF CUMBERLAND RESIDENTS

The Department of Natural Resources has implemented an “SSO Rule” (Sanitary Sewer Overflow). The rule deletions, amendments and additions are contained in chapters NR 110, 205, 208 and 210. Starting date of August 1, 2013 all SSO's Treatment Plant Overflows, and basement backups will be published in the Cumberland Advocate newspaper. This is implemented to keep the public safe and knowledgeable about the possible impact the overflow may have on human health and the City's natural resources.

Due to a gas main bored through the sewer main, a backup occurred near 1405 Elm St. on July 21, 2018. Within an hour of being notified of the overflow from manhole #314, the sewer main was jettied. The overflow stopped but the blockage was still in place. A vast amount of flushable wipes, baby wipes and rags were found to be contributing to the blockage. Please do your part by not flushing these products! After televising the sewer main, the gas main damage to the pipe was found. The sewer main was dug up and repaired. A basement back up occurred during the overflow. Wastewater totaling approximately 2,000 gallons overflowed into city storm sewer system and into Beaver Dam Lake.

Any other questions or concerns, please contact me at 715-822-2951.

EYE FACTS from JACOBSON ADVANCED EYE CARE

August is Child Eye Health & Safety Month

With the end of summer, beginning of school and sports teams beginning to practice, August is full of activity and, for this reason, August is Child Eye Health & Safety Month -- it's time to make the eye health examination appointments for your children. Remember that the school vision screening exam only indicates the presence of a vision problem and cannot diagnose exactly what is wrong with the eyes.

As kids are headed into the classroom and athletes are getting back into their routines, we're reminded that many sports and playground eye injuries can be prevented with proper eye protection. People don't really think of eye injuries as something that can be a significant and severe occurrence. It's not unheard of that you end up in the hospital having surgery with the chance of losing your eye -- and this is applicable to children just as much as to adults.

Dr. Jennifer

Make sure your kids are washing their hands regularly. Back-to-school can also mean back-to-sick if they aren't careful. It's tough, but they should also be sure to not touch their eyes to limit spreading infections.

Remind your kids to take healthy breaks every 20-30 minutes. They need to rest their eyes from reading books and staring at digital screens.

Opinion

By Craig Bucher

Last week was a sad week for Twin fans as management officially gave up on the 2018 season. Five players, from what was supposed to be a team made for the playoffs were traded away and fans were reminded, once again, that baseball is first and foremost, a business. I am extremely disappointed in the loss of second baseman Brian Dozier. He was my favorite Twin and I think, a very good player. The Twins got a “project” 2nd baseman and a couple of low level minor leaguers. Not much for the player that has hit more home runs than any another 2nd baseman in the majors, the past five years. Hang on Twin fans. We are in for another three years of “rebuilding.” “Rebuilding” is a term that means we get to pay major league prices to watch a minor league caliber team. Funny, I thought the building of the new baseball “palace” was going to give management the money to make us a competitive team year in and year out. Nothing, however, seems to have changed. The team spent, in salary, 130 big ones this season to make a run for the playoffs and this is what we get? The two biggest busts are Sano ( who can’t get in shape) and Buxton who still has a roundhouse swing and is always injured. The future - Twins fans is bleak!

SEE YOU NEXT WEEK!

P.S. Where has summer gone! It is almost time for school to begin and Baga Fest is nearly here!

How I spent my summer vacation: Talking about research

KENOSHA, Wis. – At a time of the year when many college students are holding down a summer job or simply hanging out, about 120 University of Wisconsin System students gathered in Kenosha in late July to talk about their research projects.

From the use of botanical extracts to control aggressive cats to a device to fix faulty golf swings, and from “smart” polymers to the prospect of using Styrofoam-eating mealworms to feed fish, the student projects covered a range of scientific, business and societal topics.

They were all part of a conference at UW-Parkside produced by the WiSys Technology Foundation, which is helping to tap into ideas from students and faculty in much of the UW System.

While the state’s public doctoral universities, UW-Madison and UW-Milwaukee, are the main sources of research within the system, the 11 comprehensive campuses are also churning out ideas – including some that offer commercial and company startup potential.

Helping to patent, license and otherwise nurture those ideas is the role of WiSys, which was created to manage intellectual property on UW campuses outside Madison and Milwaukee. It’s a spinoff of the Wisconsin Alumni Research Foundation, which has been doing the same for the Madison campus since the 1920s.

Invention disclosures on UW campuses outside the Big Two have climbed steadily of late, with 64 invention disclosures – ideas reported by students and faculty – in the 2016-17 reporting year. In that same year, 12 patents were issued, and others are in the pipeline. Three licensing deals were executed, and dozens of campus-based proposals received some sort of seed funding.

In fact, rankings by the California-based Milken Institute showed WiSys is slowly making its mark in terms of turning research into patents, products and companies. Earlier this year, Milken ranked WiSys 125th in the nation when it comes to issued patents, licensing agreements, licensing income and startups. That’s in the same neighborhood as Texas Tech, the New Jersey Institute of Technology, San Diego State, Oklahoma and the UW-Milwaukee, which has a separate patent and license organization.

Those efforts were on display during the conference, which attracted about 250 people overall and featured the WiSys “Quick Pitch” finals, an innovation showcase with poster displays, panel discussions and remarks by Dr. Thomas Krummel, a med-tech pioneer at Stanford University who holds a degree from UW-Parkside.

Also present were leading representatives from Foxconn Technology Group, which is building a production plant in nearby Racine County and has invested $1 million in a “Smart Cities/Smart Futures” competition aimed at teasing out ideas from Wisconsin’s public and private colleges and universities.

Combined with other trends tied to campus research, the progress shown so far by WiSys and the state’s non-doctoral campuses should encourage communities that might otherwise feel outside the circle of the larger innovation economy.

Not only are the four-year campuses producing talented graduates, but some of them might wind up starting or joining companies in the shadows of their alma maters. Keeping talent trained in Wisconsin is a big part of easing workforce shortages.

The rise of WiSys and the individual campuses should also remind to policymakers that investing in the R&D efforts of colleges and universities can lead to long-term rewards.

Economists are notorious for their “on the other hand” analysis of trends, but there’s not much dissent over the notion that research universities contribute to the prosperity of cities, regions and states around them.

Studies by the Federal Reserve Bank and others have cited the power of academic research and development in the larger U.S. economy, from direct spending tied to such research to the transfer of knowledge to companies of all sizes to the “human capital” that comes with the creation of a skilled workforce.

Basic and applied research in higher education is an arena in which America’s expertise leads the world. It is led by the likes of Stanford, MIT, Michigan and UW-Madison, but don’t downplay the role of undergraduate researchers and their faculty in other high-quality schools.

The criminal complaint states that on July 28, 2018, at approximately 11:49 p.m. Rice Lake Police Officer Zachmann responded to a report of a physical domestic incident on Bundy Avenue. Dispatch advised that a female was injured during the altercation.

Upon arrival Officer Zachmann made contact with two females and one male in the back yard of a residence on Bundy Avenue on the porch near a campfire.

One of the female subjects told him that it was her birthday so she and her husband had invited the other female and Sleik, over to the campfire for drinks. She said she and Nathan had dated and lived together for four years before recently breaking up, but had been dating on and off over the past three months. She said that he was staying at her house that night.

She said that he became upset when she was talking about her previous relationships and boyfriends. She said he jumped out of his chair and said he was going to get her and started chasing her around the campfire ring. He then cornered her on the deck and began kicking/knee striking her in the ribs and shoulder area. She tried to stop him, but he would not stop.

A witness said that he started to yell and “went crazy.” He also observed him chase the female subject around the fire until he cornered her. He then observed him begin to knee her in the ribs and shoulder area. He did not believe he could stop him, so he ran inside and called 911. Sleik had left the residence after he called the police.

The victim said he was going to mess her up prior to striking her in the shoulder. She covered herself up while he was striking her, so she was not sure if he punched, kicked or kneed her. She said it felt never ending when he was kneeling her.

If convicted Sleik may be fined not more than $11,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. His hearing will be held August 22, 2018.

Charles G. Enersen, 50, of Chetek, has been charged with obstructing an officer and disorderly conduct.

According to the criminal complaint, on July 27, 2018, at approximately 7:42 p.m. Chetek Police Officer Neal responded to a residence in the City of Chetek to an anonymous report of a possible domestic incident.

When Officer Neal arrived at the residence, he could hear a female subject screaming and yelling inside. He attempted to make contact by knocking on the door and after no one answered he attempted to look around the residence. While looking around the west side of the residence, a neighbor pointed behind the residence and said that a subject had taken off out the back door.

Officer Neal observed a male subject run into the woods nearby. He yelled, “Police Department stop moving,” and the subject continued to flee.

The witness informed Sgt. Hodek that the female inside the residence was screaming for help and they had heard things thrown around the apartment and they had not heard the female since.

Sgt. Hodek made contact with the female subject. She informed him that Enersen had come over to eat a sandwich and she was talking to her baby’s father on the phone. Enersen did not like that she was talking to him, and they began yelling and screaming at each other.

Officer Neal continued to pursue the subject, and eventually headed back to retrieve his squad car to facilitate in the pursuit. At one point Officer Neal viewed the subject attempt to get in the bed of a pickup truck to hide from him, and then he eventually fled westbound on West Center Street. Officer Neal pursued the subject in his patrol vehicle with the lights and sirens on and the subject eventually ran into one of the apartments.

Officer Neal, along with Sgt. Hodek, and Deputy Allen responded to the residence and instructed the subject to come out. He did not. After multiple warnings Deputy Allen’s canine was released into the residence. The canine did not initially locate the subject and the officers entered the residence.

Sgt. Hodek entered the living room of the residence, looked down a hallway and saw a man’s feet from a door at the end of the hallway. The subject was commanded multiple times to come out to them and that he responded by stating “come get me you cowards,” and other challenging remarks. Enersen did not willingly surrender and Deputy Allen’s canine was eventually deployed, which enabled them to secure the subject.

If convicted Enersen may be fined not more than $11,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year or both. His hearing will be held October 17, 2018.

Tyler L. Gramberg, 23, of Barronett, has been charged with strangulation and suffocation, domestic abuse, and disorderly conduct, domestic abuse.

The criminal complaint states that on July 26, 2018, Barron County Detective Carroll responded to a residence in Cumberland for a report of a domestic incident.

While en route he was informed that the 911 caller advised that Tyler Gramberg, was hitting her. Shortly before he arrived at the residence, he was informed that Gramberg had left to go to a gas station. Upon his arrival Gramberg had returned to the residence and there was another male subject in the vehicle with him.

Detective Carroll made contact with a female subject who advised that a Barron County social worker had been at the residence that day at approximately 4:30 p.m on account of domestic incident that had occurred in front of the children in the beginning of June. He became upset after the social worker was there and decided he wanted the female subject to be removed from the residence.

She said that the argument occurred outside of the residence and that while going to the back door of the residence Gramberg grabbed her by the throat, causing her to be unable to breathe. She said she tried to tell him to stop, but that she couldn’t talk because of the pressure on her throat.

Detective Carroll observed marks on each side of her neck, which were consistent with being grabbed by the throat.

She said that her two young children were present during the altercation. She also said that she and Gramberg had lived together since February and she is pregnant with his child.

If convicted Gramberg may be fine not more than $11,000 or imprisoned for not more than six years and three months, or both. His adjourned initial appearance was scheduled for August 8, 2018.

Jesse R. Barthel, 22, of Cumberland, has been charged with possession of THC, 2nd and subsequent offense.

On July 23, 2018, Cumberland Police Officer Chafer received an anonymous call from an individual who stated that a subject named Jesse Barthel was smoking marijuana around his girlfriend and her children. Officer Chafer was aware of who Barthel was and that he was on probation.

Officer Chafer made contact with his probation agent and advised her of the information that had been provided to him. She advised Officer Chafer that she would go to the residence to make contact with him and conduct a search.

Officer Chafer met up with her and another probation agent, along with officers from the Barron County Sheriff’s Department. Officer Chafer observed the agent knock on the door and make contact with Barthel. Officer Chafer was present when the agent advised Barthel why she was there and she would be doing a search of the residence. Officer Chafer asked him to step out of the residence, and during the course of the contact Officer Chafer could smell the odor of what he suspected to be marijuana coming from Barthel. Officer Chafer also advised him that he could tell the officers where the controlled substances were in the apartment or that a K-9 unit could be called.

Officer Chafer also asked when the last time he had used, which Barthel indicated that he just got done using. Officer Chafer and other officers went into the house and Officer Chafer observed what he suspected to be marijuana leaves, sitting on a couch cushion and on an end table. Agent Meister also pointed out what was believed to be a marijuana plant in a planter next to a grill. Officer Chafer also observed a glass jar with a lid on it that had a green-colored plant material inside that he suspected was marijuana.

A book was located on the coffee table that had several marijuana leaves inside of it and under the book was a small plastic bag that had what Officer Chafer suspected to be marijuana in it. There was also a small black scale on the coffee table and a package of rolling papers on the table. There was also a pipe shaped like an elephant that was found on the coffee table.

Barthels advised there was more stuff inside the house and showed Detective Olson a glass bong and pot pipe. According to Officer Chafer’s report approximately 2.5 grams of suspected marijuana was found in the glass jar. Approximately 10.6 grams was located in a Ziploc bag. Officer Chafer also weighed all of the leaves that were found in the book on the coffee table and a shelf that appeared to be drying and obtained a total weight of 26.1 g. There was also approximately 6.9 g of stems found as well. A field test conducted by Officer Chafer revealed a positive result for the presence of tetrahydrocannabinol.

If convicted Barthel may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than three years and six months or both. The Court may also suspend his driver’s license for not less than six months nor more than five years. His status conference was held August 3, 2018.

Hall of Fame!

Shannon Lane

Shannon Lane: Athletic Hall of Fame

A 1985 graduate, Shannon (Lane) Wiswell was an outstanding female athlete, who will join Bert Skinner, Dave Olson, and Bob Wurm at the October 6th Cumberland Athletic Hall of Fame Induction Banquet at the Das Lach Haus.

Currently, an Art Teacher at Burlington High School, Shannon has two daughters, Hailey and Ashley. She and her husband Jeff are avid bicyclists and also enjoy camping and hiking. Jeff has two daughters himself, Morgan and Jena, giving them a family of four along with three grandchildren.

Lane won 11 letters in high school, including four each in track and basketball and three in volleyball. She would be a team MVP in volleyball and twice in basketball, while becoming school record holder in track with a jump of 5'3 inches. She currently still holds that record, with the next best jump standing at five foot even. As a senior, she would be named the C-Club "Outstanding Female Athlete" as well as receiving the American Legion

"Citizenship Scholarship."

As a sophomore, Shannon would play on the 1983 Regional Champion Basketball team, a squad which included Kay Anderson, Barb Behling, Jill Jansen, and Ruby Vick among others. These girls would put together three good seasons, although not advancing past the Regional Championship game after 1983.

Lane averaged over 12 points a game her senior year winning All-Conference honors. That team started slowly due to an offseason injury to Anderson, an eventual 1,000 point scorer, but would come on strong the second half of the season and had season victories over Rice Lake, Hayward, Spooner, and twice over Barron.

A big jumper, as a senior she would lead the volleyball team in kill spikes and would be a long jumper as well as a high jumper in track. On October, she will leap into the Cumberland Athletic Hall of Fame. Tickets for the event will go on sale in late August.

Girls Golf Underway; Open Up on Friday in Barron Scramble

The Cumberland Girls Golf Team under Coach Carroll Schell opens up their 2018 season with a Scramble in Barron this Friday morning at 9:00 am.

The team finished 7th in the nine team Conference standings last fall. Hayward was the 2017 HON Champion. The team returns several girls from last years team and has high hopes of moving up in the standings this fall.

Soccer Team Ready to Roll Under New Head Coach

The Cumberland Beavers Soccer team is gearing up for the 2018 season under the direction of new Head Coach B. J. Brenna. Brenna was an assistant the previous three years. Joining Brenna will be new Assistant Coach Patrick Ritchie, a former Cumberland goal keeper and eighth year volunteer assistant Martin Ortiz.

The team returns only nine letter winners, so some key spots will be up for grabs. Returners Max Brenna, an all-conference defensive selection, along with Ethan Sandman, Tanner Johnson, Zach Bertelsen and Kevin Koser, will look to lead the team.

Coach Brenna stated, "With only nine returning letter winners, one could say we will have a rebuilding year. However, we like what we see from the new kids and have several key returning players, including a strong sophomore class. Cumberland will be the smallest school competing in the very competitive Middle Border Conference. We have some big shoes to fill with three All-Conference selections graduating this past spring, including Cumberland's first ever, 1st Team selection, Erik Sandman. Amery, Baldwin-Woodville, New Richmond and Barron all have strong squads."

The Beavers open the season, Tuesday, August 21st, versus Barron.

Attention Sports Fans!

All Cumberland athletic events are free this year!

Come out and support the Beavers!

Football players and coaches are back to work preparing for the 2018 season. Cumberland will host a 3 team scrimmage this Friday and opens up the regular season August 17 at Grantsburg.

Football Scrimmage This Friday; Season Opens August 17

The Cumberland Football fans will get a look at the 2018 team this coming Friday, when the team hosts Unity and Amery in a scrimmage at 10:00 am at Endeavor Stadium. The opening game of the year is scheduled for Friday August 17 in Grantsburg.

Coach Corey Berghammer brings back some fine players off last years 6 and 4 squad, but also must replace All-State Quarterback Kobe Berghammer and several other departed seniors. Cumberland tied Northwestern and Chetek-Weyerhaeuser for second place in the HON last fall behind Conference Champion Bloomer.

Replacing Berghammer at quarterback will be the coaches first challenge, but finding a way to improve the defense will also be important. The team gave up the most first downs in the HON last season and almost 400 yards of offense a game. The team gave up 590 yards in rushing in last years playoff loss to Durand. The Beavers led the HON in offensive statistics, but must improve defensively to move up in the standings.

Among the returners is First Team All-Conference wide receiver Reid Olson. He was also a Second Team choice at linebacker on defense. He caught 29 passes in Conference play for 458 yards and eight touchdowns. He has also played quarterback and may move back to the position this fall.

Other offensive returners include running back/receivers Riley Bodsberg and Jack Martens and receiver Andrew Barnes, who each had excellent campaigns last fall. Barnes was third in the HON in receptions with 23 catches for 405 yards, while Martens and Bodsberg were versatile performers, who will give Coach Berghammer some outstanding weapons on offense. If the line can continue to improve, the Beavers will continue to be tough to stop for HON foes.

Defensively, hope comes from returning starters like Adam Nyhus and Trystin Neitzel. They will join Olson, Martens, Bodsberg and others in hoping to shore up the Beavers run game. Some good young players will vie for starting positions.

Following non-conference games against Grantsburg and Cameron, the Beavers open up the Conference season with a big home contest against Northwestern on Friday, August 31.

Football Only Conferences Could Begin in 2020

The Wisconsin Football Coaches Association and the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association released a football-only conference alignment proposal for the 2020 season to member schools two weeks ago.

The objective of the plan is to form a football-only conference model that brings uniformity to the number of schools affiliated with a conference and the number of conference games played by each team.

The WIAA Board of Control and Executive Staff had encountered persistent and growing sentiments from member schools throughout the state requesting relief for football.

A number of factors identify why a plan of action was needed and appropriate, including disparities in number of conference games relating to playoff qualification, difficulties in scheduling non-conference games, school enrollment and competitive disparities within conferences, the formation of co-op programs, the implementation of an 8-player football tournament, and programs dropping varsity season schedules because of low participation.

A 2017 survey showed more than 65 percent of coaches favored developing football-only conferences over the status quo.

A process for schools requesting relief of their assigned conferences is built into the plan with a two-year cycle for review.

According to the plan, Cumberland will be placed into a football Conference with Barron, Northwestern, Bloomer, Spooner, St. Croix Falls, Cameron, and Chetek-Weyerhaeuser. The enrollments will vary from Barron being the largest at 419 to Chetek-Weyerhaeuser the smallest, with an enrollment of 247.

Backwoods/Swamp in Columbia County "Getaway"

Hello friends,
I do not know if I can ever recall being so excited to hunt whitetail deer with a bow. In the past, ducks, bear, moose, elk, trapping and deer with a gun have been much of my fall pastime with bow hunts taking place but not being a big part of late summer thoughts.

This summer I have been thinking that I want to do some serious bow-hunting and with that thought, I have to find a place to go for an early season adventure.

A week ago my thoughts were that I would head up to the Turtle Flambeau Flowage and totally hide-out for four days. My plan was that I would go up this week, scout by using some trail cameras, put up a portable tree stand, and sit in a tree from five in the afternoon until mid morning the next day.

That plan vanished when I remembered that Iron County had some serious winter kill, and so I came up with a new one. That was to head down to Columbia County, put my canoe in on the Wisconsin River, head to a creek a few miles away where there are no roads or fields bordering it, paddle up the creek and find "deer paradise". In reality I did this last December with a muzzleloader and harvested a six-point buck on the first night, but had never explored this vast marsh for a bowhunt.

Thursday, August 2nd
High 73, low 48

I think it is important to write that I kind of suck at bow hunting, and like everything else in life it is due to a lack of effort. So here is my rather unusual plan. I am going to canoe until I hit a very desolate and marshy creek. Next I am going to paddle up the creek for about 2-miles until I reach so many dead falls that obstruct my way that I have to walk.

In this case all foot travel will be done wearing hip boots and most walking is done in a marsh. I walked right by where I harvested the six-pointer, and paddled paddled past where I have caught many trout, and trapped many raccoon and muskrat. I also paddled past two places where Selina's golden retriever Fire has made two, blind double duck retrieves.

At first I did not travel with my portable stand or backpack, I just explored, and it would be best described as muddy, plenty of tall marsh grass and lots of raccoon sign. It was also very easy to fall which I found out more than once as dead falls were blocked from view by tall grass. Falling is an art, and my plan always is to not panic when you know the ship is going down.

So I have to admit I did not see much deer sign, and that was because of the tall grass but I did find an area where there is a marshy forest that borders a tag alder swamp and I set three trail cameras out and then put my portable tree stand in a tree with a plan of sitting in it from 5:00 in the evening until about 9:00 the next morning.

So it is 8:00 p.m. and I am really loving life in total comfort as I watch day become night 15-feet above the forest floor and am positive that I will see several trophy bucks.

So about 9:00 it is now about dark, I had quite the show as lots of Canada geese flew right over my head but no deer came by. At this point I realized that my pants and the inside of my hip boots are wet and I am not very comfortable. I also realized that I forgot my headlamp.

By 11:00 I was down right cold, and I came up with a plan of from up in the tree I would take off my hip boots, put on my rain gear and hopefully my pants would dry.

By 2:00 a.m my pants had gone from wet to damp and I have to admit that I was loving life even though I had not seen a deer.

At 4:00 it started to get light and at 4:45, even though I was cold I was fine, and I knew I was going to see a big buck soon.

Long story short, the geese flew right over my head again. A doe came by and busted me and I think this spot would be very good during the rut but not until then.

For those of you that live in this part of the state I want to tell you a fact. I stayed in the tree until 9:30 a.m. Then I did the one hour job of getting the stand down and back to the canoe. What is really cool is that on the paddle back down the creek I saw some very large tracks, and was pretty sure what they were.

I beached my canoe and clear as day saw where a large black bear had swam across the creek, got out of the creek and traveled through the marsh.

If anyone has an idea for a cool spot for a bow hunt I am all ears!

Sunset

The canoe trip was an adventure in itself.

The hike into paradise!

Barronett News By Judy Pieper

It's August, and you know what that means. The Rutabaga Fest is coming to town! It's the greatest time of the year in Cumberland. We get to visit with so many people that we don't normally see, we get to pig out on pepper sandwiches and pie,a and we get to watch the parade on Sunday. What more can a person possibly want? The rutabaga Fest is the weekend of the 24th, 25th, and 26th of August, the weekend before Labor Day weekend. I hope you'll be there. Bill and Sally Evans, our friends form Stoughton, asked about it, so hopefully, they will be coming up for that.

And even before the Rutabaga Fest, we have a very special event coming. The Wiesner Friends and Family reunion will be held at the Wiesner Chapel on Sunday, August 19th, starting at 11:00 a.m. The Wiesner Chapel is located on County Highway V, between Highway 48 and County Highway B, just west of Rice Lake. If you come, which I hope you will, please bring a dish to pass, lawn chairs, and if you would like, something to auction off. The money made from the auctioned items is used for maintenance of the chapel. And, you might not know that you are a friend of the Wiesner Chapel people, but believe me, by the time you leave the reunion you will know that. As far as they are concerned, there are no strangers, just friends they haven't met. Come on over and check us out.

Brittany Christianson hosted a 6th birthday party for her son, Carter, this past Saturday at their home in Barronett. Wrigley Marsh and Danny Smothers were among the attendees, and they had a blast playing with Carter. Brittany had turned the garage into a game room with a basketball hoop, miniature golf, ping-pong game, bean bag toss, and lots of balloons. And, of course, there was food, cupcakes with candles and gifts. Carter's actual birthday is on September 9th, so they celebrated a little early to beat the "school starting" rush. Happy birthday, Carter!

My cousins, Stan and Pat Hook and their grandson, Kyan Beal, stopped by to visit us last week. They were in the area sightseeing in Hayward and took time from their busy schedule to come to our place. Kyan, who is nine years old, wanted to check out the treehouse, and he was very impressed with it. He has decided that, the next time they come up, he is going to bring a friend and spend the night there. Sounds good to me. We had a very nice time visiting with all three cousins.

John Schmidt is home once more-that man travels more than anyone I know. He had been in Sheboygan attending his 50th class reunion. John and his twin sister, Jane, graduated from Cedar Grove High School in 1968, along with 77 other young people. (Big class). Anyway, after fifty years, there are still 69 graduates living, and 55 of them were at the reunion. John said that he was so glad he went and had a chance to visit with everyone. He said that everyone had changed so much that he didn't recognize anyone. He also said that he is the only one who looks exactly like he did when he graduated. Okay. We all believe that.

Our garden is keeping us busy. The beets were ready, so we picked them and I canned fourteen pints of pickled beets. The cucumbers are coming in like crazy, so I'm hoping to make bread and butter pickles this week. We've picked five gallons of blueberries and they are safely in the freezer waiting to be used in pancakes and muffins. We are getting a few ripe tomatoes and big green peppers. And, we dug up a couple potato plants to use for suppers. I love this time of the year. There is (almost) nothing better than having fresh produce from your own garden..

Lynn and Kane Thon and Jamie, Kaitlynn and Jessica Holmes had a fun day Saturday in Hayward. They spent most of the time at the fish museum. They went inside the building shaped like a fish and climbed all the way to the top so they could stand in its mouth and look out over the grounds. And, of course, the kids had fun getting into the row boat and playing on the playground equipment. They had lunch at Perkins and dessert at Dairy Queen. Lynn said that they had a wonderful day and that Kane enjoyed playing with his cousins.

Sharai Hefty invited us to her house on Tuesday evening for some homemade wine and birthday cake. Yup, Sharai's birthday is August 7th, and she is now-older than dirt. That's okay, because from what I understand, a person is only as old as he or she feels and Sharai acts like she's about 25. At this rate she will probably still be acting in plays when she's 100. Happy birthday, Sharai.

I guess that's about all I know from Barronett this week. Be sure to mark your calendar for the friends and family reunion on August 19th. See you next time.

Family Lore, Genealogical Mistakes, and Membership in the Society of Mayflower Descendants

Join us Monday, Aug. 13, 6:30 p.m. at the Barron Senior Center, 12 N. 3rd St., Barron for an interesting program by Mary Garner Metzger of Cumberland and her search for her Mayflower ancestors plus how to join the Society of Mayflower Descendants. The program is sponsored by The Blue Hills Genealogical Society and is free and open to the public.

Mary is a long time genealogical enthusiast and has done extensive research on her family including her father's family from Sioux Creek Township. Tradition had it that one branch of the family was descended from the Mayflower. Yet no proof existed. Mary's talk will be divided into two parts;

The first part is her family's search for two ancestors known to have arrived on the Mayflower in America in 1620. This took several generations and Mary is now a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants. To be discussed: family lore, the Internet, DNA, and the importance of collaboration.

The second part of Mary's presentation will cover Requirements of the Society of Mayflower Descendants for membership which Mary joined in 2012. You may have Mayflower Descendants. Come find out how you can search your family history to determine if you're a Pilgrim descendant.

If you would like to join The Blue Hills Genealogical Society, you can do so at their monthly meetings and online at www.bhgsbc.org. The Society maintains a Resource Library that is open to the public Mondays from 2:00-5:00 p.m. and is located at 410 E. LaSalle, Barron, use the back door.

“Therefore be imitators of God; as beloved children; and walk in love, just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us. Eph. 5:1-2

A few years ago a group of salesmen went to a regional sales convention in Chicago. They had assured their wives that they would be home in plenty of time for dinner on Friday night. In their rush to catch their plane and with tickets and briefcase in hand, one of these salesmen accidentally kicked over a table which held a display of apples. Apples flew everywhere. Without stopping, or even looking back, they all managed to reach their plane in time for their nearly missed boarding.

All but one! He paused, took a deep breath, got in touch with his feelings and experienced a twinge of compassion for the girl whose apple stand had been overturned. He told his buddies to go on without him, waved good-bye, told one of them to call his wife when they arrived at their home destination and explain his taking a later flight.

Then he returned to the terminal where the apples were all-over the floor. He was glad he did. The 16-year-old girl was totally blind! She was softly crying, tears running down her cheeks in frustration, and at the same time helplessly groping for her spilled apples as the crowd swirled around her; no one stopping and no one to care about what had happened.

The salesman knelt on the floor with her, gathered up the apples, put them back on the table and helped organize her display once again. As he did this, he noticed that many of them had become bruised, these he set aside in another basket. When he had finished, he pulled out his wallet and said to the girl. “Here, please take this $50 for the damage we did. Are you okay?” She nodded through her tears.

He continued on with, “I hope we didn’t spoil your day too badly.” As the salesman started to walk away, the bewildered blind girl called out to him, “Mister....” He paused and turned to look back into those blind eyes. She continued, “Are you Jesus?”

He stopped in mid-stride...And he wondered. He gently went back and said, “No, I am nothing like Jesus-He is good, kind, caring, loving and would never have bumped into your display in the first place.”

The girl gently nodded: “I only asked because I prayed for Jesus to help me gather the apples. He sent you to help me. Thank you for hearing Jesus, Mister.”

Then slowly he made his way to catch the later flight with that question burning and bouncing around in his soul: “Are you Jesus?” Do people mistake you for Jesus?

That’s our destiny, isn’t it? To be so much like Jesus people cannot tell the difference as we live and interact with a world that is blind to His love, life and grace.

If we claim to know Him, we should live, walk and act as He would. Knowing Him is more than simply quoting Scripture and going to church. It’s actually living the Word as life unfolds day to day.

You are the apple of His eye even though you, too, have been bruised by a fall. He stopped what He was doing and picked up you and me on a hill called Calvary and paid in full for our damaged fruit.

State Patrol August Law of the Month Highlights Safe Travel Around CMVs

Automobile drivers share the road with all types of travelers including motorcyclists, pedestrians, bicyclists - and a growing number of commercial motor vehicles (CMVs). The Wisconsin State Patrol Law of the Month for August focuses on state traffic laws and good driving habits to help ensure safe interactions between CMVs and other motor vehicle operators.

Due to their size and weight, commercial motor vehicles have unique operating limitations such as large blind spots, longer stopping distances and limited maneuverability, said Wisconsin State Patrol Captain Nick Wanink of the Northwest Region. Whether you’re driving a CMV or other motor vehicle, the same rules and advice apply: don’t tailgate, be aware of lingering in blind spots, pass safely and allow adequate room when you re-enter a traffic lane.

State law 346.07 pertains to safe passing, and prohibits drivers from returning to a traffic lane until safely clear of the overtaken vehicle. Violations can result in a fine of $232 and assessment of three demerit points. State law 346.14 prohibits drivers from following another vehicle more closely than is reasonable and prudent. Violations can result in a $200 citation and three demerit points. General safety guidelines that apply to CMV operators and other motorists:

Be patient, watch your speed and don’t tailgate. Some CMVs may travel slower than other traffic due to technology that limits their freeway speed. Drivers who follow too close decrease their ability to see what’s ahead and have less time to react when traffic slows.

When passing, don’t linger in blind spots. As you return to a traffic lane, allow adequate room to avoid cutting off other vehicles.

Use and watch for turn signals. CMVs require extra room to turn. Never try to squeeze in between the curb and a turning CMV.

Safety on our roadways requires all drivers to do their part by being patient, sharing the road and abiding by traffic laws, Captain Wanink said.

NOTICE OF PARTISAN PRIMARY AND SAMPLE BALLOT AUGUST 14, 2018

OFFICE OF THE BARRON COUNTY CLERK TO THE VOTERS OF BARRON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a partisan primary to be held in Barron County on August 14, 2018, at which the nominees for the offices named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office under the appropriate party, each in its proper column, together with the questions submitted to a vote, if any, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS

Upon entering the polling place, a voter shall state his or her name and address, show an acceptable form of photo identification and sign the poll book before being permitted to vote. If a voter is not registered to vote, a voter may register to vote at the polling place serving his or her residence, if the voter presents proof of residence in a form specified by law. Where ballots are distributed to voters, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the voter shall retire alone to a voting booth and cast his or her ballot except that a voter who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the voter's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the voter of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

At the partisan primary, the voter shall select the party of his or her choice. Voting for candidates of more than one party may invalidate the ballot. You must cast a vote for individual candidates.

Where Paper Ballots are Used

The voter shall choose the ballot of the party of his or her choice. If the voter votes on more than one party ballot, no votes will be counted.

On the party ballot of his or her choice, the voter shall make an (X) or other mark in the square next to the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office for which he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the voter shall write in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote.

Where Optical Scan Voting is Used

- If a party preference is designated, and votes are cast for ballot candidates of another party or write-in votes are cast in another party, only votes cast in the designated party will count.
- If a party preference is not designated, and votes are cast for candidates (or write-in votes are cast) in more than one party, no votes will be counted

Within the party of his or her choice, the voter shall connect the arrow next to the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office for which he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the voter shall write in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote, and connect the arrow next to the write-in line.

Where Touch Screen Voting is Used.

The voter shall touch the screen next to the party of his or her choice. The voter shall then touch the screen next to the name of the candidate of his or her choice for each office for which he or she intends to vote. To vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, the voter shall type in the name of the person of his or her choice in the space provided for a write-in vote.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth. Sample ballots or other materials to assist the voter in marking his or her vote may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

If a voter spoils a paper or optical scan ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one voter. If the ballot has not been initiated by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the voter shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place.

The voter may spoil a touch screen ballot at the voting station before the ballot is cast.

After Voting the Ballot

After an official paper ballot is marked, it shall be folded so the inside marks do not show, but so the printed endorsements and inspectors' initials on the outside do show. The voter shall then deposit the voted ballot in the ballot box, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit, and deposit the un-voted ballots in the discard box. The voter shall leave the polling place promptly.

After an official optical scan ballot is marked, it shall be inserted in the security sleeve so the marks do not show. The voter shall then insert the ballot in the voting device and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. If a central count system is used, the voter shall insert the ballot in the ballot box and discard the sleeve, or deliver the ballot to an inspector for deposit. The voter shall leave the polling place promptly.

After an official touch screen ballot is marked, the voter shall leave the polling place promptly.

A voter may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the voter declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the voter's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the voter.

The following is a sample of the official ballot:

Official Primary Ballot Partisan Office August 14, 2018

Notice to voters: If you are voting on Election Day, your ballot must be initiated by two election inspectors. If you are voting absentee, your ballot must be initiated by the municipal clerk or deputy clerk. Your ballot may not be counted without initials. (See end of ballot for initials.)

IMPORTANT: Use the marking pen provided. DO NOT USE RED INK!

Busy summer for the Boy Scouts

It’s been a busy summer for Cumberland Boy Scout Troop 24! The Chippewa Valley Airshow in June was an exciting opportunity for the Scouts to help with traffic logistics before and after the show each day. Scouts watched the outstanding air show and also got to hear from members of the Blue Angels team after the show.

In July, 12 Scouts attended summer camp for a week at Camp Phillips. It was an action packed week where Scouts participated in a wide variety of activities including cooking, climbing, swimming, nature, and citizenship in the world. First year campers also worked on some activities to help them prepare for future adventures.

In addition, Troop 24 met all the requirement to earn the Baden Powell award, which recognizes troops that demonstrates scouting methods during camp as well as completing a service project. Camp was concluded with a 22.5 mile hike on the Ice Age trail back to Scoutland. This was the final requirement for the Scouts to complete the hiking merit badge.

Congratulations to all the Scouts on their accomplishments and achievements completed this summer!

Washburn County Horse Tests Positive for Eastern Equine Encephalitis

Protect yourself from mosquito bites

A horse in Washburn County has tested positive for Eastern equine encephalitis (EEE). Mosquitoes spread the virus that causes EEE. No human cases of EEE have been reported in Wisconsin this year. Only three human cases of EEE have been reported in Wisconsin between 1964 and 2017.

EEE virus is transmitted to humans, horses, birds, and other animals during bites from infected mosquitoes. Mosquitoes acquire EEE virus by feeding on infected birds. The virus is not spread person to person or directly between animals or between animals and humans. This case confirms that there are mosquitoes in the area with the EEE virus. Infected mosquitos can transmit the virus to people and other animals.

Most people infected with EEE virus do not have symptoms. Some infected people develop swelling of the brain. This usually begins with sudden onset of fever, headache, chills, and vomiting. The illness may become severe resulting in confusion, seizures, coma, or death. There is no specific treatment for this EEE illness.

Signs of EEE infection in horses include depression, loss of appetite, drooping eyelids and lower lip, blindness, paralysis, and death. Horse owners can vaccinate their horses against EEE virus to protect them from becoming ill.

Because EEE virus is known to be in Wisconsin, residents and visitors to the state should take action to prevent mosquito bites. Contact your health care provider if you suspect you have EEE illness.

Lower your risk for mosquito-borne diseases. Limit your exposure to mosquitoes and get rid of mosquito breeding sites. When cold weather arrives, the mosquitoes will die.

Protect yourself and family from mosquito bites by:

- Limit time spent outside at dawn and dusk. This is when mosquitoes are most active.
- Apply bug spray to clothing as well as exposed skin since mosquitoes may bite through clothing.
- Make sure window and door screens are in good repair to keep mosquitos outside.
- Get rid of items that hold water, such as tin cans, plastic containers, ceramic pots, or discarded tires.
- Clean roof gutters and downspouts so they drain properly.
- Turn over wheelbarrows, wading pools, boats, and canoes when not in use.
- Change the water in birdbaths and pet dishes at least every three days.
- Clean and chlorinate swimming pools, outdoor saunas, and hot tubs. Drain water from pool covers.
- Trim tall grass, weeds, and vines. Mosquitoes use these areas to rest during hot daylight hours.
- Landscape to prevent water from pooling in low-lying areas.

For more information about EEE virus, please visit:<http://www.cdc.gov/eastequineencephalitis/>

Electric Vehicles Coming At You in the Fast Lane

The appeal of electric vehicles is gaining momentum. Automakers are investing about $90 billion over the next five years into this technology. Barron Electric Cooperative is leasing an all-electric Chevy Bolt, which has a 238-mile range and 110 miles per gallon equivalent. Barron Electric is the first electric cooperative in the state to invest in this technology. Barron Electric’s General Manager Dallas Sloan remarked, “We are excited to be on the cutting-edge of this technology and provide our members with more information about the benefits of electric vehicles.” Barron Electric will be hosting an open house featuring the Chevy Bolt on Wednesday, August 15 from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. at Barron Electric Cooperative located at 1434 State Highway 25 North, Barron. Enjoy a lunch and the opportunity to test drive the Chevy Bolt following the event.

If you have never driven an electric vehicle, you are in for a treat. While an internal combustion engine revs up to speed, an electric vehicle has full power at its disposal instantly. They are quiet and well-equipped inside. They allow you to bypass the lines at the gas station, saving up to $2,000 annually on fuel.

The Chevy Bolt has a 60-kWh lithium-ion battery pack that spans the entire floor of the vehicle. The battery has an 8-year warranty or up to 100,000 miles. Touch screens provide a variety of information including the energy used by driving and climate, as well as the range before charging.

Electric vehicle charging stations were installed at Barron Electric’s offices in Barron and Spooner. Furthermore, members purchasing an electric vehicle are eligible for a free charging station. Members can visit barronelectric.com for more information on this program.

Electric vehicles have a positive impact on the environment. A gas-powered vehicle emits 0.9 pounds of CO2 per mile driven, while an electric vehicle emits 0.35 pounds of CO2 per mile driven. Electric vehicles powered by wind or solar have zero emissions.

Batteries from these vehicles have valuable components and are recycled.

Electric vehicles have a bright future. Prices are dropping and with the range expanding, owners can confidently drive nearly everywhere with a little bit of planning. More companies and utilities are installing efficient charging stations at their places of business and in popular public locations. Find public charging stations at plugshare.com. Charging times are shrinking; the future is charge times of ten minutes or less.
