$1,000 Reward for Information Leading to Sign Vandalism

The Barron County Democratic Party is rewarding a $1,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone damaging or stealing signs promoting Democratic candidates in Barron County.

"I'm disgusted that it's come to this," said Party Chair Gerry Lisi. "We run into isolated incidents of vandalism every campaign year, but 2020 has been a whole other order of magnitude. By Labor Day weekend, about 30 of our hand-painted 4-foot signs were damaged. Our volunteers worked hard painting and setting up these signs to express their political preference as guaranteed by the First Amendment. But it seems that some people have lost respect for law and the sense of security that supports a civil and safe society."

A $1,000 reward will be given to a person in Barron County who provides information leading to the arrest and conviction of whomever is vandalizing Democratic signs.

The Party encourages everyone to express their political views peacefully and respectfully. Citizens who experience sign theft or damage should report it to the local police department or sheriff.

Those with information or questions about the $1,000 reward can stop by the Party office between 10 am and 4pm at 16 W. John St. in Rice Lake.

Bus vs. Vehicle Crash Results in One Fatality

On September 10th, 2020 at 6:34 p.m. the Sawyer County Sheriff's Office received a report of a two-vehicle crash involving a school bus and an SUV at the intersection of State Highway 40 and State Highway 48 in the Town of Weirgor. The Sheriff's Office was assisted by Sawyer County EMS, Exeland, Winter and Radisson Fire Departments, Wisconsin State Patrol and the Sawyer County Highway Department.

Initial investigation indicates that a Bruce School District school bus operated by Sherrie L. Mataczynski, 54, of Exeland, WI was traveling north on State Highway 40. The bus failed to yield the right of way when making a left turn onto State Highway 48 and collided head on with a 2007 Dodge Nitro operated by Renee C. Balko, 40, of Bruce, WI.

The driver of the SUV sustained fatal injuries and was pronounced deceased at the scene. The driver of the bus was transported to an area hospital for medical treatment. It is unknown at this time as to the extent of her injuries. The four students on the bus, two of which had minor injuries, were treated at the scene and released to their parents/guardian.

The crash remains under investigation by the Wisconsin State Patrol, Sawyer County Sheriff's Office and Sawyer County Coroner's Office.

Summer Food Service Program Extended through December

Stressing the importance of offering nutritious meals to children during the summer months, the Cumberland School District announces the extension of the Summer Food Service Program.

The Summer Food Service Program (SFSP), which is funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) and is administered by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, provides nutritious meals to children during the summer, when free and reduced-price school meals are typically unavailable. Free meals will be made available to children 18 years of age and under. Persons over 18 years of age who are determined by a state or local public educational agency to be mentally or physically disabled and who also participate in a public or private non-profit school program during the regular school year may receive free meals as well.

The following locations will be serving the free meals to children attending school in person at normal serving times in their grade level buildings. Blended, virtual, and remote learning students who do not or cannot attend in person may pick up grab and go meals daily behind the high school. Meals are provided to eligible children regardless of race, color, national origin, age, gender or disability and there will be no discrimination in the course of meal service. "Helping parents meet the nutritional needs of their children is the strength of this program" said Dr. Barry Rose.

Non-discrimination Statement: In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability

Remembering Emma

On Friday, September 11th, as a tribute to Emma Anderson, the Cumberland Middle School student who lost her life in a tragic UTV accident in late August, the students of the Cumberland School District wore Emma's favorite color, teal and gathered to spell out "Emma" and a heart formation (top). Students district wide paid honor by displaying the "heart" symbol (bottom).

Decision Making Guide for Gathering Sizes during COVID

Barron County Public Health has released a decision-making framework. This framework will help community organizations decide on the appropriate size of indoor and outdoor gatherings. This model is based off Harvard Institute for Health's, Path to Success. Path to Success is a set of easy to follow measures that help communities determine their risk. A map shows if a county or state is on the green (lowest), yellow, orange or red (highest) risk level. The average number of new daily cases determines the risk level. For more information and specific measures, visit: <https://globalepidemics.org/key-metrics-for-covid-suppression/>.

"The situation changes so often, we wanted something that community members could go to without having to wait for an update from us," said, Health Officer Laura Sauve. "This allows organizations in the community to make informed decisions in a quicker way, more efficient way."

The numbers in the framework are recommended SO LONG AS:

- Six feet between households is maintained
- Masks are required
- Increased access to hand washing and/or sanitation is available
- There is control of situations that bring people into close contact (entrance/exit, concessions etc)

This tool is meant to help in the decision making process. Decisions should not be made based on this alone. Considering other things such as age and risk level of the population attending, the ability to track attendees if a positive case is found and the availability to participate in different ways such as virtually should be considered as well. "These numbers are the highest we would recommend," continued Sauve, "Some organizations may choose to have much lower numbers or cancel events all together. Please keep in mind these numbers may change as we learn more about COVID-19."

Public Health encourages organizations to look for ways to keep numbers low at all gatherings. Using multiple services at churches, limiting sporting event spectators to parents only and using virtual options for events are all ways to help numbers stay as low as possible.

Reducing interactions is the best way to prevent the spread of COVID-19. It is important that anyone who is feeling sick stays home and calls their doctor to be tested. Testing is available at all local clinics.

If you have questions about COVID-19, please call 2-1-1. You can also text COVID-19 to 211-211. For the latest information, follow Barron County Public Health on Facebook or visit the Wisconsin Department of Health Services website.

This tool is meant to provide guidance in determining the appropriate size of indoor and outdoor gatherings based on the current COVID-19 risk level in Barron County.
**Decisions should not be solely based on this dashboard*

Gathering Recommendations
These numbers are recommended SO LONG AS

- ✓ 6 feet between households is maintained
- ✓ Increased access to hand washing and/or sanitation is available
- ✓ Masks are required
- ✓ There is control of situations that bring people into close contact (entrance/exit, concessions etc)

✗ Those with increased risk of serious illness should consider limiting attendance at all gatherings.

People are able to spread COVID-19 up to 48 hrs/2 days before they start to feel sick. This means, people will not know that they are sick and able to spread COVID-19. Wearing a mask, social distancing, and limiting gathering sizes are all ways we can help slow the spread of COVID-19 but are not perfect.

Would you like to see new collections, new services, different programs, change the layout of the library, or strengthen a service that is currently being offered? Your vision is needed... your feedback will create the best future plan (strategic plan) possible for your library.

Please take part in an upcoming online Zoom strategic planning meet/greet: Sept. 17th: 3:00 PM, Young Adults (Tweens/Teens) Focus Group; Sept. 17th: 6:00 PM, General Public - All Community Members Welcome; Sept. 24th: 3:00 PM, General Public - All Community Members Welcome; Sept. 24th: 6:00 PM, Businesses - Focus Group; Oct. 1st: 3:00 PM, Non-Profits - Focus Group. • All community members are welcome to attend any online Zoom meet/greet focus group. Please email or phone the library to receive the Zoom invite link to join one of these focus groups.

The library staff will walk you through the process of joining the meeting.

In addition to the online Zoom gatherings, we are requesting community members to take a 3 minute online survey. To access this survey, log onto the library's website or facebook page. Again, we hope to receive your feedback on how the library can best meet your needs while staying relevant for future generations.

To support our local businesses and thank the participants who attend a Zoom strategic planning meeting and/or complete the strategic plan survey, Each person who completes the survey and/or attends one of the online Zoom meetings should phone (715-822-2767), email (cupl@cumberlandpl.org), or stop into the library to share us your name, phone number and/or email address to enter the drawing to be eligible to win one of the ten $25 gift certificates.

Northwoods Notebook: Where will we gather when winter comes? By Larry Werner

Since this COVID thing happened, Ann and I have avoided the indoors, with others, that is. Health authorities say the killer virus is dispersed outdoors but can hang in the indoor air waiting for one of us to breathe it in and get sick.

Yes, we're being exceptionally careful — keeping a proper distance from everyone but each other, including our kids and grands, and avoiding going into other people's houses or having folks in ours. You see, we're old and have conditions that make us susceptible to a corona-virus infection.

Being exceptionally careful hasn't been that bad while the weather has been conducive to being outside. We sit six feet apart on decks, porches and at fire pits and have bring-your-own-food (BYOF) picnics with friends at parks.

At Tourist Park, we've seen groups of women who used to meet for coffee at Peter & Annie's spread out in lawn-chair circles for their weekly chat sessions. The Rice Lake paper had a story recently about some guys who used to meet in a restaurant carrying on their caffeine tradition in the establishment's parking lot.

It's one thing to meet outside when it's 70, but quite another when it's 10 below.

So we're talking about strategies for getting together with friends once the winter winds are howling. And how about our daily walks that have kept us sane and reasonably fit since April? Well, a wise Norwegian apparently said there's no such thing as bad weather, only unsuitable clothing. I guess we'll find out if that's true when we bundle up for our morning and afternoon hikes.

Once the lake is frozen and snow-covered, we can strap on our snowshoes and take our daily walks through town on the lake instead of along it.

As for out BYOF picnics, I suppose we'll be gathering around fire pits more than we ever have before. Fortunately, we've got one at Serenity Shores and plenty of firewood from the tree that blew down a year ago.

And there's something else we've been discussing with our picnic buddies, Al and Lori Bock. We're thinking it might be nice to heat our patios with one of those infrared devices you see in big-city bus shelters, or maybe even an outdoor fireplace. Nothing better than socializing around a roaring fire, even if it is fueled by propane.

The experts are telling us this could be a tough winter for the flu and COVID as the weather keeps people indoors, where they can spread germs by sneezing, coughing or even breathing. I don't know about you, but I'm getting sick of those illustrations showing deadly droplets being projected across the room at innocent bystanders.

They say we should all stay six feet apart, wash our hands frequently, cover our coughs and sneezes and when we gather with others, do it outside. So that's what we'll do, until the arrival of a vaccine that will allow us to hug our grandkids, shake hands with acquaintances and invite friends into the house.

If that vaccine doesn't come before winter, we might have to finally take up ice fishing.

As I write this column, there are 52 days left before the presidential election. I wonder how many millions of dollars will be spent trying to persuade the five percent of the voting public that is still undecided. I am sure the money would solve a bunch of our needs as a society. I also am not sure that I can take the almost non stop barrage of campaign advertising that is still coming my way. I admit that I am a political junkie, but enough is enough. I can only take so much of the same old rhetoric over and over again and again. There is a circle - COVID-19, campaign news, Trumps a con man, Biden is soft on violence and will create a socialist society, wild fires out west, protests and violence - pause for a commercial and then repeat.

I suggest two books that will relieve the pain of this election cycle.

1. Verses for the Dead by Preston & Child. The authors main character is an eccentric, rich FBI agent who solves crimes in most unorthodox manner. It is the 17th novel featuring FBI agent Pendergast. I think it is a great read.

2. The Immortal Irishman by Timothy Egan. This is a story of the Irish revolutionary Thomas Francis Meagher who led the Irish Brigade in many of the fiercest battles in the Civil War. It is also a great book.

So, if you are tired of the depressing news on television, shut off the tube and grab a book.

SEE YOU NEXT WEEK!

To the Editor:

In the past two weeks we have seen the Democrat and Republic conventions take place.

I heard the acceptance speeches of both presidential nominees.

Under Joe Biden we will be under the policies of the 110 page manifesto compiled by Bernie Sanders and signed by Joe Biden in mid July. In those pages, more than the words under God will be taken from us. Nothing is free and yet they promise free medicare, education, and endless other things. Who's paying?

There will be full term abortions, no school choice, police will be defunded, our right to bear arms will be taken away, the borders will be opened to increased drug traffic and illegal immigrants. Our religious freedoms and our loyalty to Israel will be in jeopardy. That's the Biden America.

Under President Trump, who has kept his promises, we will have a strong economy and jobs returned to America.

There will continue to be defunding of planned parenthood. We will continue to have sanctity of life, religious freedoms, and be a strong ally to Israel.

Parents will have school choice, and prayer will be back in schools.

We are energy independent and have a strong military again. That's a President Trump America.

"If my people which are called by name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and forgive their sin, and heal their land. Chronicles 2 7:14.

Vote November 3.

Safe coronavirus vaccine will be developed, but accelerated process won't bypass safety

By Tom Still

MADISON, WI: It may be too early to know if the adverse reaction reported by a subject in the AstraZeneca-led vaccine trial is linked to the coronavirus test vaccination itself or some other cause.

However, this much has always been known: Producing a safe vaccine for any disease or condition is hard and cannot be rushed for safety reasons, if nothing else.

That's why all vaccines go through rigorous, phased reviews that usually involve thousands of subjects who are dosed or given placebos under carefully watched conditions. Adverse reactions are not uncommon in early stage vaccine trials, and they're often unrelated to the treatment being tested. In the end, only one in four vaccines that enter human trials reach the market.

In fact, with 47 coronavirus vaccines in either Phase 1 (safety and dosage), Phase 2 (expanded safety) or Phase 3 (efficacy) trials around the world, it's almost surprising there haven't been more reports of adverse reactions. It happens.

When it does happen, there is a well-worn path for dealing with it, with organizations such as the Centers of Disease Control, the National Institutes for Health and the Food Drug Administration all taking an interest in calling a "time out."

That's what is taking place in the AstraZeneca and Oxford University trial. Because the latest report happened during a combined Phase 2 and Phase 3 trial, the referees correctly blew the whistle - as did the British-based researchers themselves.

"Serious side effects during a Phase 3 trial are not common," said Dr. James Conway, a UW-Madison professor and physician who has been leader over time in the American Academy of Pediatrics for immunization and infectious disease strategies.

"The whole purpose of gradually advancing from Phase 1 to Phase 2 is to tease those things out," Dr. Conway added. "The problem here is that they are essentially doing a combination (trial) in trying to speed things up. Because they are rapidly moving towards trying to immunize 30,000 subjects to simultaneously test efficacy and safety, this is a little more significant - and hence why all the studies have been put on hold."

Does this mean a vaccine for the SARS-CoV-2 (coronavirus) strain behind the worldwide pandemic is out of reach? Not at all. Experts such as Dr. Conway and others think a vaccine will eventually be available, in part because so many researchers and companies are taking shots on goal - with billions of dollars behind the collective effort.

Still at question is which vaccine or vaccines will emerge as solutions, given the billions of doses that will likely be needed if public confidence in the final products is upheld.

In a recent discussion hosted by the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce, the president of the Medical College of Wisconsin said he plans "to get whatever vaccine is available on the market first."

That's because Dr. John Raymond trusts the process will weed out vaccines that aren't safe or effective.

"American vaccine makers make safe vaccines," he said. "I don't believe that there would be significant problems with contamination."

Leading vaccines in trials today don't use the live virus, Dr. Raymond noted, so there won't be problems with the chemicals used to inactivate the virus or the incomplete inactivation of the virus itself. Some of the most promising vaccines in the pipeline use messenger RNA to induce antibodies that bind to potential pathogens, such as the real virus.

That still leaves plenty of unknowns, experts in Wisconsin and elsewhere agree. How many doses would be required? Very few vaccines are "one-and-done," meaning repeated doses may be needed over time. What are the long-term effects? Most subjects are taking part in trials measured in months versus years, which is more often the case.

The hold on vaccine trials isn't what anyone wants to hear, given the nearly 200,000 deaths in the United States thus far and nearly 900,000 reported fatalities worldwide. However, getting it right is more important than getting it fast, even during a pandemic. Public confidence requires it.

Still is president of the Wisconsin Technology Council. He can be reached at tstill@wisconsin-technologycouncil.com

Justin A. Flohr, 36, of Rice Lake, has been charged with possession with intent to deliver methamphetamine, possession of narcotic drugs, possession of THC, possession of a controlled substance, two counts of possession of drug paraphernalia, and operating a motor vehicle while under the influence.

Officer Prinsen, with the City of Rice Lake Police Department, reports on September 3, at approximately 10:17 a.m., he was on routine patrol when the Barron County Communication Center advised Barron County deputies and Rice Lake officers of a traffic complaint. The citizen complainant stated she was traveling northbound on U.S. Hwy 53 when she observed a black sedan with no license plates swerving all over the roadway. The citizen stated the vehicle had been traveling down the center of both northbound lanes of travel and the vehicle had almost hit multiple other vehicles.

Officer Prinsen reports he arrived on U.S. Hwy 53 and positioned himself near the 141 mile marker facing south in order to watch the northbound lanes of travel. At this time, dispatch advised the black sedan was arriving at the first Rice Lake exit, which is at mile marker 140 on Hwy 53. Officer Prinsen reports he observed a black vehicle traveling within the inside lane as it traveled over the bridge, over South Access Road. As the vehicle came off the bridge, Officer Prinsen observed the vehicle exit its lane of travel without signaling and then drive into the outside, northbound lane of travel. A short while later, the vehicle continued to veer right leaving the outside northbound lane of travel and began traveling on the entrance ramp to Hwy 53. The vehicle then reentered its lane of travel and continued driving in the outside northbound lane.

Officer Prinsen reports he observed the driver of a white car, following the black sedan as both vehicles passed his location. Officer Prinsen reports the driver of the white car looked at him and pointed to the black vehicle in front of her. Officer Prinsen reports he pulled out of the median and began to follow the black vehicle. As he was following the vehicle, Officer Prinsen observed it cross the white line twice in a short period of time.

Officer Prinsen reports he activated the emergency lights and sirens on his patrol squad. The black vehicle hit its brakes and began to slow down. Officer Prinsen reports it took the vehicle an unusual amount of time to slow down and come to a stop on the side of the roadway. Officer Prinsen reports he ran the temporary license plate which was in the rear window and the registered owner returned to the defendant, Flohr.

Officer Prinsen reports he approached the vehicle on the driver's side. Flohr was the lone occupant in the vehicle. Upon making contact with Flohr, Officer Prinsen immediately smelled the overwhelming odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle. The driver identified himself as Flohr. While Flohr was obtaining his wallet, Officer Prinsen observed a rolled up roach, or rolled up marijuana cigarette on the floorboard next to Flohr's feet. Officer Prinsen observed Flohr's eyes were dilated and glossy. Officer Prinsen also observed Flohr was very drowsy, and appearing to nod off at times.

Officer Prinsen directed Flohr to exit the vehicle. On Flohr, Officer Prinsen found rolling papers and $324 in his pockets. Flohr stated he did not have a job, but sometimes did handyman stuff.

Officer Prinsen reports he then began searching the vehicle. Officer Prinsen picked up the marijuana cigarette and confirmed the odor of marijuana coming from it. Officer Prinsen observed two boxes in the back seat, one being locked and the other not. The box that did not have a lock on it had built in magnets. Officer Prinsen reports he opened up this box and observed a plastic bag with green, leafy plant-like material, which based on Officer Prinsen's experience, he recognized to be marijuana. Officer Prinsen reports the substance was later tested using a Nark II field test kit and tested positive for the presence of THC, and weighed 1.94 grams.

Officer Prinsen also observed two baggies in the box containing a larger amount of a white, crystalline-like substance, which Officer Prinsen recognized as methamphetamine. The substance was later tested using a Nark II test kit and tested positive for the presence of methamphetamine and weighed 10.68 grams.

Officer Prinsen observed another bag within the box that contained a folded piece of paper. Officer Prinsen later opened the folded piece of paper and within it, observed multiple squares of colored pieces of paper, which Officer Prinsen recognized to be lysergic acid diethylamide (LSD). Officer Prinsen reports the substance was later tested using a Nark II field test kit and tested positive for the presence of LSD.

Officer Prinsen reports he located additional items of contraband in the vehicle when he searched it after the vehicle had been towed to the secured Annex at the Rice Lake Police Department. Officer Prinsen located one baggie with a crystalline-like substance in it between the driver's seat and middle console. The substance baggie was later tested using a Nark II field test kit and tested positive for the presence of both methamphetamine and fentanyl, and weighed 1.14 grams.

Officer Prinsen also located in the vehicle two multi-colored glass smoking devices with burnt residue under the driver's seat. The smoking devices field tested positive for the presence of THC. Between the passenger seat and the center console, Officer Prinsen located a silicon container that had a green substance in it which field tested positive for the presence of THC. An additional $12 was located in a cigarette pack on the floor.

Officer Prinsen asked Flohr if he would perform a standardized field sobriety test and Flohr declined. Flohr did consent to have an evidentiary chemical test of his blood taken. Officer Prinsen transported him to Marshfield Medical Center where a sample of his blood was taken. Officer Prinsen reports that, while at Marshfield Medical Center, Flohr was nodding off and falling asleep consistently even when the medical technologist was conducting the blood draw.

If convicted for possession with intent to deliver methamphetamine, Flohr may be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than 25 years or both. For possession of narcotic drugs, he may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than three years and six months or both. For possession of THC, he may be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than three years and six months or both. For possession of a controlled substance, he may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than three years and six months or both. For possession of a controlled substance, he may be fined not more than $350 nor more than $1,100, and imprisoned for not less than five days nor more than six months.

His preliminary hearing is scheduled for September 21, 2020.

Operation Musky 2020

Hello friends,

I believe that this was the 20th year in a row that I have joined my good friends from my days in the Air National Guard at Truax Field in Madison for what we now call Operation Musky. There are about a half dozen of us left that back in the day worked on A10 fighter aircraft "The Warthog". Over the years my deer camp, "The Red Brush Gang" and some of our friends have joined the group for two days of fishing and fun.

This year's event was held on the Eagle River chain and we stayed at the Hiawatha Motel which was an excellent facility in every way for our outing.

Saturday, August 29th
High 71, low 47

Today was the first day this summer that I witnessed where a person had to dress warm instead of just shorts and a t shirt, yesterday was the first. There are 22 of us in this year's event and my partner is long time buddy Jeff Moll who I hung around with while growing up and we were both at Truax together. Jeff was in Avionics and I was a weapons loader.

The hours for the outing are from 6-8 on Saturday and 6-11 on Sunday. Jeff and I were not on the water at 6 but were getting ready with a bunch of other musky hunters and once we hit the Eagle Chain we kept fishing until 8.

Last night was a big social event and it is very cool how everyone from our deer camp to past Air Guardsmen is like family for a weekend. We specialize in giving each other as much bs as possible and it happens on shore as well as in the boats!

Today Jeff and I were trolling down river and through Eagle River to fish the other end when my good friend from growing up and deer camp, Todd Cibulka and his son Joey caught up to us. Jeff and I had a plan of fishing the lower end because it does not get fished as much. After an always fun chat Todd passed us and right when we got to where I wanted to start casting, we witnessed Todd catching a 32.5 inch northern pike which would win the northern pike side bet.

Another crazy part of this 20-year history for me is that I have not ever caught a musky in this tournament. Today I caught like a 26-incher that I did not measure.

Rueben Herschleb won this outing last year with a 43.5 inch musky and today he caught 43.5 inch musky and won it again. My brother Mike caught a musky and my "no good brother in law" Dick Schuster caught a 37 incher which took second place.

The one time that Jeff and I got out of the boat was on the lower part of the chain and we just pulled the boat up and drank a beer on what was once a beaver hut, but the tree branches from years of cutting with a beavers teeth, swimming to the hut and building have broken down and become earth.

Now it could be seen by plenty of fish scales that when the local otter catch fish they eat them on it and I am sure the beaver that made this hut over a period of years are long gone.

Tonight, we had what I believe was one of the coolest shingdings of this group's history. The Hiawatha has a game room with free pool and ping pong. Together this group cooked meals on our grills and we talked and laughed until it was just Jeff Moll, Rob Meier and myself. The laughter was nonstop and for an old timer like me to watch my deer camp and my pals from my military days it was an EXCEPTIONAL NIGHT!

My enlistment in the Wisconsin Air National Guard ended in 1987. I have a profound respect for the U.S. military as well as for our good men and women in law enforcement. Without either, there is zero hope of living a quality life in this country and I just pray that everyone understands that.

Respect the FLAG! Sunset

Volleyball Team to Open Against Bloomer This Thursday Night

The 2020 Cumberland Girl's Volleyball team under the direction of Teri Lesnar will kick off their season this Thursday with a home match against Bloomer. The JV and C-Team play at 5:30, with the Varsity match scheduled for Elmer Beran Gymnasium at 7:00 pm. The team will then be off until next Tuesday, when they travel to Hayward.

Cumberland was one of four teams that finished 4 and 4 in the Conference last fall as Bloomer went 8 and 0 to capture the title.

"Bloomer is a perennial Conference power, but we were the only HON team to take a set from them last year. We're hoping to play them tough this year again. The girls are excited for the season to finally begin and are taking on the mindset of being thankful for the opportunity to play, as they know how quickly things can change," said Coach Lesnar.

There are several key returners for the team including Maya Brenna, Megan Muench, Siri Hyatt, Erin Stokes, Amie West and Kristen Nyhus. Stokes was given the "Hustle Award" last fall and Megan Muench and Siri Hyatt shared the "Most Improved Award."

"We were 20 and 16 in matches last year and hope to do as well this fall," concluded Lesnar.

Girl's Golf Team Falls to Luck, Hosts Spooner, Plays in Solon Springs Tournament

The Cumberland Girl's Golf Team is moving into a busy part of their fall schedule after playing Luck/Frederic, hosting Spooner and participating in a Tournament at Solon Springs last week. The team played at Superior on Monday and hosted Barron on Tuesday and then ready for a match at St. Croix Falls next Monday, starting at 4:30 pm.

The team dropped their meet against a good Luck/Frederic team last week, falling by a 235 to 264 score. "Luck/Frederic showed good depth and balance with Britta Hibbs shooting a 57 and Jordan Kamish a 58. Alleah Anderson led us once again and was overall Medalist with a 55, while Reyna Bertelson shot her best round with a 58. Reyna is really showing tremendous improvement in her golf," said Coach Tom Hullander.

Thursday, at Solon Springs, a wooded rough led to some higher than usual scores from girls on the course. The Tournament was hosted by Northwestern as the Tigers and Beavers took advantage of the situation to also play a HON dual.

"Northwestern beat us 268 to 219 in our dual as Mckenzie Tuura led the way with a 45. She also won Tournament Medalist with a 93. Alleah Anderson continued to lead us, shooting a 58," said Hullander.

Barron edged Northwestern 433 to 437 to take the nine-team Tournament. Reyna Bertelson led Cumberland in scoring with a 121, one stroke ahead of Anderson.

Barronett News

By Judy Pieper

Well, well, well, this has been quite a week, hasn't it? I'm not sure if this was our earliest frost, but it certainly must have come close. We still had some vegetables in the garden, and we were worried that they would be ruined, but they were okay. The leaves were all wilted and nasty after the frost, but the tomatoes, peppers and squash were just fine.

I hope you had a great Labor Day weekend. Our family did – we were at Treeland Resort north of Hayward and had a fantastic time. It was a little cool, but the kids still enjoyed kayaking, swimming, beanbag toss and volley ball. And, one of the nice things about getting older (in fact the only nice thing about getting older) is that everyone seems to think Duane and I should be waited on. We did almost nothing all weekend except relax and eat meals prepared by the others. Probably gained ten pounds – I'm afraid to check.

Bonnie Fogelberg sent an e-mail to let us know that the Barronett Civic Club Garden Tractor Pull will start at noon on Saturday, September 26th at the Civic Club track. The community center will not be open, but there will be food and beverages at the pull. There will be bleachers and porta-potties on the site. Admission is free, but for a $5.00 donation you will get a button and you will be entered into a cash drawing. There will also be craft booths outside the community center, so please come by and check everything out. It's not quite our usual celebration of fall, but it will be a fun family day out. And, of course, you can check out the beautiful fall colors on your way to Barronett.

Have you checked out the "Barronett Bob" song on Facebook yet? I don't have a Facebook account, but the kids do, so they brought it up for me this past weekend. It is great!! One of the men who sell Bob's vegetables is sitting in his kitchen, strumming a guitar and singing about how great Bob's vegetables are. Barronett is close to becoming a destination town. Now I think maybe someone should build a huge waterpark here. Any takers?

Lynn Thon, Jamie Lombard

and Kurt Anderson decided they wanted to have some great Italian food this past Friday, so they came to our house and we ordered to-go from Bistro 63. It was so delicious. And, of course, we sat around visiting while we ate. Jamie and Kurt are busy planning their wedding, which will take place on October 17th, so they have lots to tell us. We were hoping to have the wedding outside by Lynn's house, but they are making other plans just in case the weather doesn't cooperate.

Then, on Saturday morning we had our special birthday breakfast, waffles with fruit, ice cream and hot syrup, for Kaitlynn and Jessica Holmen's tenth birthday. It's hard to believe that the twins are in the double digits already. Time flies.

Jerry and Carol Hefty called on Saturday afternoon and asked if we would like to join them at Hilltop for breakfast on Sunday after church. You know, of course, that we did. Pat Olson and Jerry Marsh joined us, and we all enjoyed the delicious food and great conversation.

It was opening bow season this weekend, you know, and Jerry had shot (is that what you call it when you get it with an arrow?) a doe that morning. He had taken it to Louie's to be made into sausage and bologna.

Sunday afternoon Curt Adams hosted a going away party at the Hilltop for his son, Dillon, who will be going to San Diego to join the Marines on September 21st. We are so proud of Dillon, but a little nervous too, about his decision to join the Marines. We are sure he will do well, but, you know, it's hard to think of the great-nephews as adults. We love you, Dillon – go show them what men from northern Wisconsin are made of.

We had an e-mail from John Schmidt's twin sister, Jane Watry, this past week letting us know that there will be a celebration of life for John this coming Saturday, September 19th. There will be a burial service at 10:00 a.m. at St. Mary's cemetry in Belgium, Wisconsin, and then an open house starting at noon at Bob and Jane's home in Sheboygan. I'm sure you remember John – he lived here in Barronett for many years before deciding that he was tired of cold weather and moving to Donna, Texas. He passed away very unexpectedly at his home in Donna last November. He was a very nice man and a great friend, and we thought we would be able to visit him in the sunny south for many winters to come. Jane wanted to let as many of his friends know about the celebration of life as possible in case anyone wanted to travel to eastern Wisconsin to be with them for the day.

I guess that's about all I know from Barronett this week. Be sure to mark your calendar for the garden tractor pull and craft sale on the 26th. When you are saying your prayers, please remember the fire fighters and residents of the west coast that are battling the terrible fires, and those on the golf coast affected by the hurricanes. Stay safe.

"The Lord's Supper and Jesus' crucifixion"

by Pastor John Miels

St. Paul Lutheran Church

Jesus' death and the Lord's Supper stand in a reciprocal relationship. One of the same thing and shouldn't be separated if at all possible. The Eucharist is another name for the Lord's Supper. It is taken from the Greek word which means "thanksgiving" because Jesus gave thanks to His Father when He instituted this holy meal for us. The Lord's Supper gives meaning to the crucifixion as atonement for sins. In turn this historical death provides the Lord supper with Jesus' actual body and blood for its content. He is really present for us. The cross without the Lord supper remains accessible only as an historical event, and stands in danger of being lost among other events, for example, the deaths of prophets and apostles. The Lord's Supper without the cross just becomes mandated ritual and reverts to Law because Jesus is no longer present as sacrifice or means of redemption. Historical death and sacramental rite are two sides of the same coin, they operate in tandem while comprising one reality. It is how God has always delivered His Grace. Now salvation won on the cross for us, yet that historical reality is given to us in the Lord's Supper in the present. We not only remember Jesus works and merits but receive Him into our mouths and ears in the Eucharist. Taken as often, and should be often, with thanksgiving, as the Liturgy works for us in the Divine Service.

'Tis the Season for Voting: Celebrate National Voter Registration Day on Sept. 22

Non-partisan Organization Supports Barron County Voters

2020 is a year unlike any other, and that goes double for this year's National Voter Registration Day on Sept. 22. Barron County Votes, a nonpartisan group that promotes civic engagement, has reframed its services in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Rather than staffing in-person registration booths at schools, libraries, and other venues, Barron County Votes (BCV) is offering information and one-on-one support to mobilize voter registration and participation.

To access any of the following services, simply email bcvotes2020@gmail.com to post your request. Leave your email or phone number and a BCV volunteer will get back to you.

- All questions about voter registration, absentee ballots, state IDs, poll sites, voter eligibility, and more are welcomed. A volunteer, for example, can assist by guiding you through the information and processes available at www.MyVote-WI.gov.

- Rides to the DMV or to the polls can be scheduled.

- A BCV member will make arrangements to witness your absentee ballot.

- Free BCV business cards that list voter resources are available to libraries, grocers, retailers, schools, offices, and other sites. They can be made available for patrons to pick up or inserted in materials that are checked out or purchased.

- BCV will prepare custom articles for hard-copy or electronic newsletters that explain requirements for specific voters: first-time voters, voters with disabilities, those who reside in assisted-living homes, voters who have moved or changed names, college students, and so on.

- Teachers can request materials for civics units and to assist new voters with registration. A coloring page and word search are available to elementary schools.

- A BCV volunteer can be scheduled to join virtual class or organizational meetings to discuss topics related to voting.

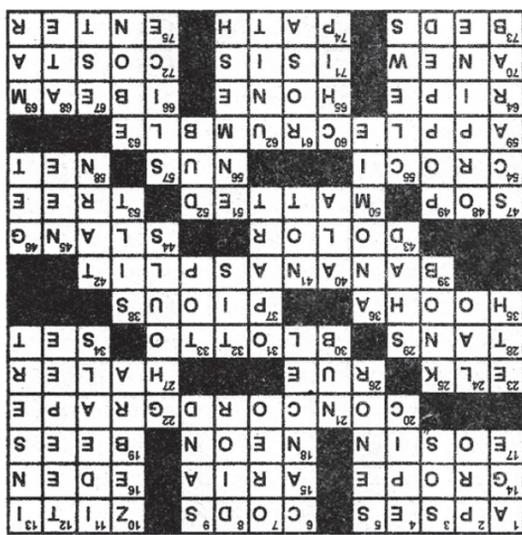

- Volunteers are also available via Zoom and other virtual platforms to train others to assist with voter registration. BCV will share comprehensive binders that cover all the details about registration and voting.

- BCV relies on and encourages voters to use such nonpartisan resources as How to Vote Absentee in Wisconsin, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mJbg9dUllpU>, and the Election Protection Hotline, 866-687-8683. The Dane County League of Women Voters staffs a statewide Voter Helpline, 608-285-2141, and provides accurate, specific, and timely information about voter registration and participation at <https://www.lwvदानcounty.org/voting-information>

The 32nd Annual Northern Nationals, held last weekend in Superior, brought back the Russ Laursen Classic to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Russ's death while racing. Russ Laursen was a legend to those who witnessed his success in racing. Russ started his racing career in 1951 and won over 500 trophies during his 19-year career. To honor his father, Steve Laursen chose the number 519 for his race car. Steve placed third on Saturday night out of a field of 24 late model cars.

To Our Customers

It is with my pleasure and regret to announce that after 35 years in business, The Printers Den will be closing its doors permanently on October 30th. On behalf of myself, my Dad and my family we extend a huge "Thank You" for all the support over the years. Cumberland welcomed us in on the day we opened and continued to make us part of this community family for 35 years. The friendships we made through the business are priceless!! One thing I didn't want to do, is leave our customers "high and dry." All of my customers are welcome to come in, and I can give you your print files. I will also get you in touch with other printers to help with your needs.

Thank you so much!!!
