First Rutabaga...

for the visitor's support while in the city during the two-day festival.

The paper concluded its announcement of the upcoming weekend by saying, "The Cumberland Rutabaga Festival bids fair to be the largest celebration ever held in this part of the country."

The schedule for the two days appeared in the October 6 edition of the paper. Once in town, everyone was asked to register at the Chiodo building, where they would be given a final program and tickets for Saturday's free lunch and several drawings. They could then head to one of the many events or attend the Harrison Animal Circus, which consisted of five animal acts and was free to the public. Among their acts were five acrobatic goats, four of the world's highest diving dogs, and Major Jack, a pony that could pick out colors and count.

Once concluded, the first Festival would be called, "A Huge Success." The Advocate would say, "the Festival exceeded the fondest expectations, as more than 5,000 farmers came from far and near to enjoy the two-day program." By Friday morning, over 1,100 farmers had registered as the Festival was met by "Perfect weather."

Twenty-year old Leonard Daniels was named "Rutabaga King," after consuming five quarts of mashed rutabagas during Saturdays contest. There were many other contest winners including Frank Zaccardi, who won the farmer's boys' race and Dorothy Hanson, who won the girls' race. Mrs. H. H. Lewis won the best rutabaga recipe, while the largest grown rutabaga winners included Jake Mosil, Robert Huehn, and Fred Moser.

A week after the event, the Rutabaga Committee asked to, "Express their hearty appreciation and wonderful cooperation to the various committees for their work in making the festival a big success." Advocate Editor R. B. Hart gave his own summation of the weekend by saying this, "The Festival together with our nationally recognized dairy reputation should make us all a bit more conscious of the fact that Barron County, Wisconsin is "THE COUNTY" in Northern Wisconsin."

We're about to prove it again this weekend!
